

O God, that Great Tsunami

1. O God, that great tsu - na - mi has stunned us one and all.
2. How ma - ny folk have per - ished? We can't their bod - ies find:
3. E - con - o - mies are ru - ined and lives in tat - ters lie,

Our neigh - bors reel in an - guish while homes and cit - ies fall.
life will not be the same now for those they've left be - hind.
Sew - age is washed down - riv - er while lone - ly or - phans cry.

O God of wind and wa - ter who made the sea and sky,
More than a mil - lion mourn - ers are griev - ing to their core,
O Spir - it, send your com - fort and give us faith that cares, a - mid such great de - struc - tion, we mourn - ful - ly ask, "Why?"

O Je - sus, Friend and Sa - vior, you suf - fer with the poor.
for when our neigh - bors suf - fer, our lives are bound with theirs.

WORDS: "The Storm Came to Honduras," Carolyn Winfrey Gillette.
Adaptation by Peter Holden.

MUSIC: Hans Leo Hassler, 1601, harm. Johann Sebastian Bach, 1729

PASSION CHORALE

7.6.7.6.D

Copyright © 1978, 2004 Carolyn Winfrey Gillette. Published by The United Methodist General Board of Discipleship, PO Box 340003, Nashville TN 37203-0003; telephone 615-340-7070; website <http://www.umcworship.org>.

Free one-time permission is given to congregations using the hymn to support ecumenical relief efforts in response to the earthquake and tsunami of December 2004 in Asia, provided entire copyright citation is included on each copy. Hymn may not be used for profit, republished, or placed on a website without permission of the owner.