

O Lord, Our Lord

$\text{♩} = 132$

1. O Lord, our Lord, your light shines from the depths of cre - a - tion.
 2. You trust-ed us with do - min - ion by shar-ing your vi - sion.
 3. Thus, to be - gin a new sea - son of serv-ing with rev - erence,

Your glo - ry soars from the an - gels in their ju - bi - la - tion.
 In faith - ful - ness you have of - fered so great a com - mis - sion.
 our own no long - er, we hon - or your word with o - be - dience.

How can we stand, save by the grace of your hand?
 Call us to care! Teach us your rich - ness to share!
 Your cov - e - nant calls us to go where we're sent:

Show us the way to sal - va - tion.
 Help us to claim our own mis - sion.
 wit - ness to your lov - ing pres - ence!

WORDS: F. Richard Garland, 2007 (Psalm 8)

LOBE DEN HERREN

MUSIC: Erneuerten Gesangbuch, 1665; harm. by William Sterndale Bennett, 1864

14 14.478

Words copyright © 2007 F. Richard Garland. Published by The General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church, PO Box 340003, Nashville TN 37203-0003. Website <http://www.umcworship.org>. Telephone 615-340-7070.

This hymn may be reproduced and used in congregational worship with the inclusion of the copyright citation on each copy with the added words. "Used by permission." It may not be sold, used for profit, republished, or placed on a website.