1. Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne. Hark!
2. Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave, and
3. Crown him the Lord of peace, whose power a scepter sways from 4. Crown him the Lord of love; behold his hands and side, those how the heavenly anthem dawns all music but its own. A-rode victorious in the strife for those he came to save. His pole to pole, that wars may cease, and all be prayer and praise. His wounds, yet witness a celestial city, in beauty glorified. All wake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee, and glories now we sing, who died, and rose on high, who reign shall know no end, and round his pierced feet fair hail, Re-deemer, hail! For thou hast died for me; thy
