We three kings of Orient are;
bearing Frank incense to offer have I; Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume breathes a Glorious now behold him arise; King and gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, bring to crown him again, King forever, owns a Deity night; prayer and praising, life of gathering gloom; sorrowing, sighing, God and sacrifice: Alleluia, moor and mountain, following yonder star, ceasing never, over us all to reign, voices raising, worshiping God on high, bleeding, dying, sealed in the stone-cold tomb, Alleluia, sounds through the earth and skies,

O star of wonder, star of light, star with royal beauty bright, westward leading, still proceeding guide us to thy perfect light.
