

What Do We Do? How Can We Cope

1. What do we do? How can we cope with
 2. Where is the love that once we knew, pro -
 3. Come to our aid. O, hear our cry, as, ran-dom vio - lence such as this? We feel a - gain the tec - tion that we thought was ours, as God - for - sak - en faced with car - nage, death, and fear, we strug - gle to con - pain of death, re - ceive a - gain be - tray - al's kiss.

 now we stand where lives are torn and cour - age cowers.
 tain our hate and need to know your love is near.

WORDS: Andrew Pratt, 2005

MUSIC: Attr. to Elkanah Kelsay Dare, 1799

KEDRON
LM

Words copyright © 2005 Andrew Pratt. Published by The United Methodist General Board of Discipleship, PO Box 340003, Nashville TN 37203-0003. Website <http://www.umcworship.org>.

This hymn may be reproduced and used for congregational worship with the inclusion of the copyright clause on each copy and the words "Used by permission" added. It may not be used for profit, altered, arranged, sold, republished, or placed on a web site.

Andrew Pratt is a Methodist pastor in Great Britain. He composed this hymn text in response to the terrorist bus and train bombings in London in July 2005. Many of his hymns appear on the General Board of Discipleship worship website. He may be contacted by email at andrewpratt@btinternet.com.